

SUMMARY OF NO. 13-17

This proposed constitutional amendment would prohibit the Governor from deploying members of the Massachusetts National Guard outside the borders of the Commonwealth, except (1) if necessary for the defense of any part of the state to which they do not otherwise conveniently have access; or (2) to provide emergency temporary assistance to other states during times of natural disaster.